“MERCURY and other mineral substances are unhappily too common ingredients in our modern medicines;—which if once introduced into the system, though in the smallest proportions, are very difficult to be removed, and never fail to produce the most deplorable effects,—such as palsy, contraction and convulsion of the limbs, total lameness, weakness, excruciating colic pains, cramps, faintings, nervous affections, catarrhs, tubercles in the lungs, till at length consumption, either pulmonary or hectic, closes the dreadful scene; while on the other hand the simple botanical remedies will cure all diseases without subjecting the patient to any of the foregoing evils.”

MITCHELL, M.D.s.

DR. WATKINS'S THOMSONIAN

HARVARD STREET INFIRMARY;

Opposite 499 Washington Street,

BOSTON.

THE Subscriber would inform his friends, patrons, and the public generally, that he yet continues to administer the vegetable medicines on the Thomsonian principle at the above establishment, for all complaints to which mankind are liable. The efficacy of these simples has been tried and proved by innumerable living individuals, who have been healed of all kinds of disease in every stage of the same, although they have been abandoned by the regular physicians as incurable. It is unnecessary, in confirmation of this statement, to introduce the certificates of the patients who have been under his care, of the particular disease with which they have been afflicted, as the reader is referred to his advertisements published in the most popular journals of the day, wherein may be found a detail of such complaints and of the mode of treatment thereof.

By a reference to the quotation which heads this article, from the opinion of some of the most celebrated members of the faculty, the reader must now be convinced, that mineral medicines cause the most dreadful consequences; and the proprietor would remark, that in the Thomsonian system their use is wholly discarded; his practice being exclusively confined to the administration of botanical simples.

Having, for more than twenty years past, been familiar with their salutary operation on the human frame by prescribing them in all kinds of sickness, in Europe, North and South America, including the West India Islands, and having also, during his residence in Boston the nine months past, met with decided success, not having lost one patient out of a large number, in the same course of practice, he respectfully invites the afflicted patient to place himself under his care, and in so doing he confidently assures him that whatsoever may be the character of his disease, he may speedily be restored to sound health,—if timely application be made.
